

FEDERATION IS TO EMPLOY A LAWYER

Tri-City Labor Men Plan to Secure Permanent Legal Talent to Handle Affairs of Body.

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE

Heretofore Unions Have Engaged Individual Counsel When Occasion Demanded.

The question of employing permanent legal talent, to handle its affairs the year round, was brought up last night at the semi-monthly meeting of the Tri-City Federation of Labor at the Industrial hall in this city. A committee of three, consisting of W. E. Campbell, Arthur Honeywell and Fred Little, all of Davenport, were named to investigate the new plan, to determine its costs and ways and means and to report at the first meeting in December.

Heretofore each of the unions affiliated with the federation has employed its own counsel when a lawyer was needed in certain cases that came up. Under the new plan one or two lawyers would be secured to act the year round for every union affiliated with the federation and for the central body itself, to handle all affairs that may come up or concern any union affiliated with the federation.

It is thought that under the new plan the general cost will be lessened and greater efficiency obtained, because the counsel would be in close touch with the affairs of the respective unions.

State Delegates Report.

In spite of the unfavorable weather last night a large number of delegates was present at the session and much routine business was disposed of. Delegates to the convention of the State Federation of Labor held at Alton, Ill., made a report.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally if You Eat Meat Regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, backaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidney or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications. Harper House pharmacy.—(Adv.)

AT THE ILLINOIS.

Charlotte Braeme's famous novel, "His Wife," has been filmed. Those who have read this vital, appealing book must understand the difficulties of procuring a cast of characters of ability to portray the emotions and forces that dominated the persons of the book. The Thanhouser company, however, selected Gertrude O'Brien and surrounded her with a typical Thanhouser cast. The film will be tomorrow's attraction at the Illinois theatre, and it promises to be one of the picture delights of the week. The heart-rending romance of the young wife's love and devotion is only contrasted with the tragic story of a heroic husband's sacrifice for his worthless brother. The story deals with two brothers, one secretly trying to protect the wife of the other, arouses his own wife's jealousy and she is so wrought over her own misconceptions of incidents that she loses her mind. She wanders away and it is not until some time later that her mind is restored. When she returns she finds her husband kneeling at her grave. He had believed her dead, and his devotion proves that her suspicions were unfounded. They are reunited. The story has a deeper appeal than its mere synopsis indicates, and it has been hailed as one of the greatest film dramas of the season. Beside Miss O'Brien in the cast are H. E. Herbert, Lorraine Huling and Inda Palmer. "Cabiria," today's attraction at the theatre, drew large crowds during the afternoon and it pleased everyone. The story is based upon actual incidents in the early Roman and Greek history and presents in detail many of the customs and habits of those people.

AT THE EMPIRE.

Novelty is a hobby with Manager Charles Berkell of the Empire. He is constantly on the lookout for acts of this type with which to embellish his bills. But it should be understood that there is a dearth of novelties with the punch in the vaudeville field, and therefore when a manager presents a couple of them on one program he is doing something out of the ordinary. Manager Berkell is doing that at the Empire the last half of the week. For instance, there is Lucier Gillette & Co. in "The Lady From Delft." There are a man and a woman in the company, but it is the latter who does the things that thrill the audience. They are a German couple, not long away from the fatherland. They were recently turned back on the Canadian border while on their way to fill an engagement at Calgary because of their nativity. The woman is probably the swiftest and cleverest juggler seen at the Empire this season. She works in a special and beautiful stage setting, executing tricks that are entirely new and with

HOME IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT!

Across the waters desolation holds sway—the music of the hearth has been supplanted by the roll of drums; the cheery call of the father returning from work is replaced by the martial call of men in arms. Home has lost its meaning, and home-loving citizens lie in the trenches. How different are things here at home—in America!

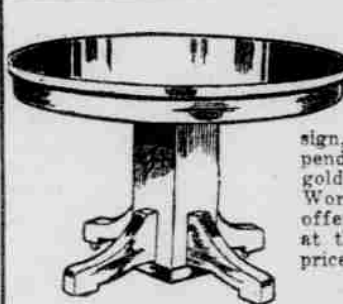

Here men and women and little children may still enjoy the happiness which peace and comfort bring. They have the power to enjoy home to the utmost—to benefit by the magic of Home Happiness. May we appreciate the privileges we enjoy to make home real and glorious!

an ease that would bring blushes to the face of a male exhibitor of larger physique. While her work requires great strength, it is done with surprising artistry and smoothness. It is an act one rarely sees. Then there is Kama & Co. in magic and illusions. Kama has several tricks that are distinctively his own. One is in pouring beer through two plates and a hat before your eyes into a glass on which the hat has been placed. Another is in hypnotizing a brass ball, causing it to travel in midair unsupported so far as you are able to see. He has several other mystifying stunts. The comedy feature of the bill is offered by Burkhardt and Kelso, who program themselves as "The Loop Hounds." They have a setting showing the entrance to the College Inn and the Sherman house, Chicago. They indulge several minutes of rich dialogue and put over a couple of funny song numbers. Their burlesque duet is exceedingly amusing. Wright and Davis, in "The Love Insurance Agent," have a different act. It's a new theme for vaudeville and Wright and his lady associate do 15 minutes of really original conversational sparring. Montrose and Sardell sing a little, dance some, ride the bicycle, etc. Sardell also executes some out of the ordinary acrobatic turns.

AT THE COLUMBIA.

If the first Columbia road show was good, and all who witnessed it declared it was, the second road attraction which opened for the first time yesterday at the popular theatre is better. It is a laughing bill from start to finish and filled with the kind of humor that amuses without leaving a sting. The headliner is "A Jay Circus," in which Dan Sherman and Mabel DeForest send their audience into shouts of glee over the antics of two farmers who visit a circus in a rude town. The experiences of the pair are so natural and life like that the sketch makes an instant hit and has the house in an uproar. The audience is put in a happy frame of mind from the very start of the bill, when Rex's comedy circus, featuring "Maud," the bucking mule, is given. "Maud" refuses to be ridden and the efforts of a number to get on her back causes much mirth. There are several good stunts in the act, including the work of a pony that makes a revolving table travel at a terrific rate. Dogs and cats are also called on to perform. "Me and Mary," by Thomas Swift & Co., has plenty of comedy in it. The three members in the sketch sing and dance and win applause by their cleverness. George Rosner shows he is one of the best impersonators of the business. His characterization of the G. A. R. veteran is a fine piece of work. LeRoy & Cahill, singers and entertainers, give several songs in an entertaining manner.
